Sutcombe / Holsworthy: 01409 261 425 | Tolvaddon: 01872 562 742

For visits or collections, contact the relevant depot first. The registered office is the legal correspondence address and is not described here as a sales depot.

3. Business and regulatory disclosures

The website provides information about new and used machinery, parts, servicing and repairs. VAT registration number: to be supplied if VAT registered. Any finance or insurance promotions must identify the relevant authorised firm, status and applicable regulatory details; no such status is asserted by this notice.

4. Content and rights

Website copy, photographs, graphics and other material are owned by Alan Snow or used with the permission of their respective owners. Manufacturer names and marks belong to their owners. Any copying or reuse is subject to the permissions in the Website Terms of Use and rights permitted by law.

5. Related documents

Read the Website Terms of Use for conditions applying to this website and the Privacy Notice for information about personal data. Separate terms apply to any machinery sale, parts order, service or repair; this notice does not create a sales contract or remove any statutory rights.

Legal notice: review

Internal review notes - remove this page only after the items below have been resolved and the final wording approved.

Confirm operator and VAT

Confirm the company named on page 1 is the operator and correct contracting entity for both depots. Check the registered office, registration jurisdiction and VAT number. Replace the confirmation text with the approved details.

Display disclosures on the website

Place the registered company name, number, registration jurisdiction and registered office directly in an accessible website footer or legal page as well as in this download. A PDF alone should not be relied on to make required information readily accessible.

Check regulated activities

Confirm whether finance broking, insurance distribution or other regulated services are promoted. If so, have the relevant compliance adviser supply the required disclosures and approval wording.

Approve before release

Check permissions for images and brand marks, confirm the contact details, set an effective date and obtain UK legal review. Remove draft banners and this review page only after completion.
